Texas Shooting, Store Linked to Criminal Investigation Already(NYP)[2022]

The Texas gun store where teen school shooter Salvador Ramos got an AR-15-style rifle before his rampage was previously part of an ammunition smuggling case involving the Mexican drug cartel, according to Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

In 2009, a businessman from Uvalde's neighboring town of Eagle Pass was accused of trying to smuggle more than 10,000 rounds of ammunition into Mexico, ICE said.

The firepower was purchased at Oasis Outback LLC in Uvalde — the same gun shop where Ramos got one of the rifles found inside Robb Elementary School after he massacred 21 people there last week.

Businessman Fred Farhat, 48, the owner of Farhat's Boots and Jeans, paid almost $6,000 cash for more than 10,000 rounds of .223 and 5.56 x 45 mm ammunition in three separate transactions in a three-hour period from Oasis Outback in 2009, authorities said.

Texas Shooting, Timeline of Events(Wiki)[2022]

Timeline of events

Below is the timeline of events in which the massacre unfolded according to law enforcement and other sources.<sup>[64][93][94]</sup>

Time	Event	[hide]
After
11:00 a.m.	Ramos shoots his grandmother <sup>[95]</sup>
11:28 a.m.	Ramos crashes his grandmother's truck into a nearby ditch and exits the vehicle armed.
11:30 a.m.	First 9-1-1 call placed by a teacher who saw Ramos, while the U.S. Marshals Service received a call for assistance from a Uvalde police officer. The teacher enters the school through a propped-open door and shuts the door, but the door does not lock itself, despite being designed to do so. <sup>[95]</sup>
11:31 a.m.	Ramos, who is outside the school, begins shooting into classrooms. At the same time, a patrol officer arrives.
11:33 a.m.	Ramos enters the school through the same door and begins shooting in interconnected classrooms 111 and 112.
11:35 a.m.	Three police officers enter the school and approach the closed door to the classroom Ramos is in. He fires shots at the officers, grazing two of them. Four more officers enter the school. <sup>[12]</sup>
11:42 a.m.	A teacher reportedly texts someone that there was an active shooter on the school campus.
11:43 a.m.	The school announces on Facebook a lockdown of the school "due to gunshots in the area", saying that "students and staff are safe in the building."
11:44 a.m.	Officers request more resources, equipment, body armor, and negotiators; the evacuation of students begins.
12:03 p.m.	Nineteen law enforcement officers gather in the hallway to the classrooms but do not enter the classroom Ramos is in because the incident commander, Pete Arredondo, was treating the situation as one with a "barricaded subject" instead of an "active shooter". <sup>[17]</sup> Arredondo believed that no more lives were at risk, and he wanted more equipment and officers before conducting a tactical breach. <sup>[16]</sup>
12:03 p.m.	A female student calls from classroom 112, identifying herself and the classroom number; after 1 minute and 23 seconds, she ends the call.
12:10 p.m.	The first group of deputy U.S. Marshals arrives at the school to assist. The female student from classroom 112 calls 9-1-1 a second time. <sup>[12]</sup>
12:13 p.m.	The student in classroom 112 calls 9-1-1 a third time, reporting multiple people dead in the classroom.
12:15 p.m.	Some members of the Border Patrol Tactical Unit arrive at the school with tactical shields.
12:16 p.m.	The student in room 112 calls 9-1-1 for a fourth time, reporting that eight to nine students are still alive in the classroom. <sup>[12]</sup>
12:17 p.m.	The school announces on its Facebook page that there is an active shooter at the school and authorities are on scene.
12:19 p.m.	A student from classroom 111 calls 9-1-1 but hangs up when another student tells her to end the call.
12:21 p.m.	Three shots are heard in a 9-1-1 call.
12:36 p.m.	The student in room 112 calls 9-1-1 for a fifth time, reporting that Ramos has shot a door. She is instructed to stay on the line and be very quiet.
12:43 p.m.	A student in classroom 112 calls 9-1-1 and asks the operator to send police now.
12:46 p.m.	The student in classroom 112 says she can hear the police next door.
12:47 p.m.	The student in classroom 112 again asks the 9-1-1 operator to send police immediately.
12:50 p.m.	Border Patrol officers use a janitor's master key to unlock the door Ramos has locked, and they enter the classroom <sup>[12]</sup> Ramos, who is in a closet, kicks open the door and starts shooting. The officers open fire and kill him.
